ROAD DOMINANCE CONTINUES FOR DOLPHINS

The 2010 Dolphins are truely a Jeckle and Hyde team, and how fittingly that on Halloween, the team continued that streak. The Dolphins defeated the Cincinnati Bengals 22-14 to improve their road record to 4-0 and an overall record of 4-3. While the Dolphins are undefeated on the road this season, they can't seem to win in front of their home crowd. Though with poor attendance at home games and what seems like a 50/50 split of Dolphins fans and opponents fans, it isn't bizarre that the Dolphins feel comfortable without a home field advantage.

The game did not start well for the Dolphins though, as the Bengals took the opening drive 86 yards on 15 plays and capped the drive with a 7 yard touchdown pass to Terrell Owens from Carson Palmer. The Dolphins did respond, as they took their opening drive 50 yards on 11 plays that ended in a 38 yard field goal by Pro Bowl kicker Dan Carpenter.

Carpenter would cut the Bengals lead to 7-6 with a 42 yard field goal before a very weird play gave the Bengals their second score of the day. In the second quarter, Palmer looked deep, threw a pass towards the endzone that Chris Clemons appeared to intercept. However, Clemons bobbled the ball, tipped it up into the air and the ball was caught by Owens who walked into the endzone for his second touchdown of the day.

The Dolphins would add two more Carpenter field goals before the end of the half to cut the Bengals lead to 14-12 at halftime. The Dolphins then took over the game in the second half. Carpenter would kick his fifth field goal of the day and Ricky Williams would cap a 96 yard drive with a one yard touchdown run that would give the Dolphins the 22-14 victory. At one point in the second half, the Dolphins had forced the Bengals potent offense to four straight three and outs. Second year cornerback Sean Smith sealed the win when he intercepted Palmer with just two minutes and 54 seconds to play.

Three AFC East teams played 1:00PM games today, and only the Dolphins walked away winners. The New York Jets were shut out at home by the Green Bay Packers 9-0, and the Buffalo Bills played a full 75 minutes of football, before the Kansas City Chiefs kicked the game winning field goal to win 13-10 in overtime. The New England Patriots host the Minnesota Vikings in the late afternoon.

TELL US WHAT YOU THINK IN THE FINHEAVEN FORUMS!